

Beacon geometry is method-specific

Hatched bars are medians made mostly of failed fixes: on the collinear array the beacon centroid lies on the line of symmetry, so TOA and TDOA never leave it, and their 6.77 m is the distance from the seed to the truth. AOA is the best of the three there.