

NDT map, Eqs. (7.12)-(7.13): 50 voxels of 1 m, 2-sigma ellipses crosses are the voxel means. Thin ellipses hug a wall -- almost no variance across it, plenty along it -- so NDT constrains motion perpendicular to a wall far better than motion along it. The fatter, tilted cells are where one voxel straddles a corner.

